SIDE STORIES

New friend or foe? It's you to decide!

The sea takes the travelers farther and farther away. Lee tries to navigate by the stars and the sun, but his lack of experience makes it difficult to follow the route.

Yeah, I see it too! Lets dock and have a look at what is out there!

The shore of the new island looks friendly. It's worth looking around and restocking supplies.

*Lee, look, is there land?

Octa,
I leave you in charge.
Keep an eye on the raft.
Cat and I will be back soon!

Lee and Cat go deeper into the jungle.
Huge flowers and gigantic insects immediately get their attention.

I've never seen insects
like that before.
But they don't look aggressive.

* Lee, something down here...!!!

Is that a dangerous creature?

Is that a curious creature?

* Lee, I'm tangled!!!

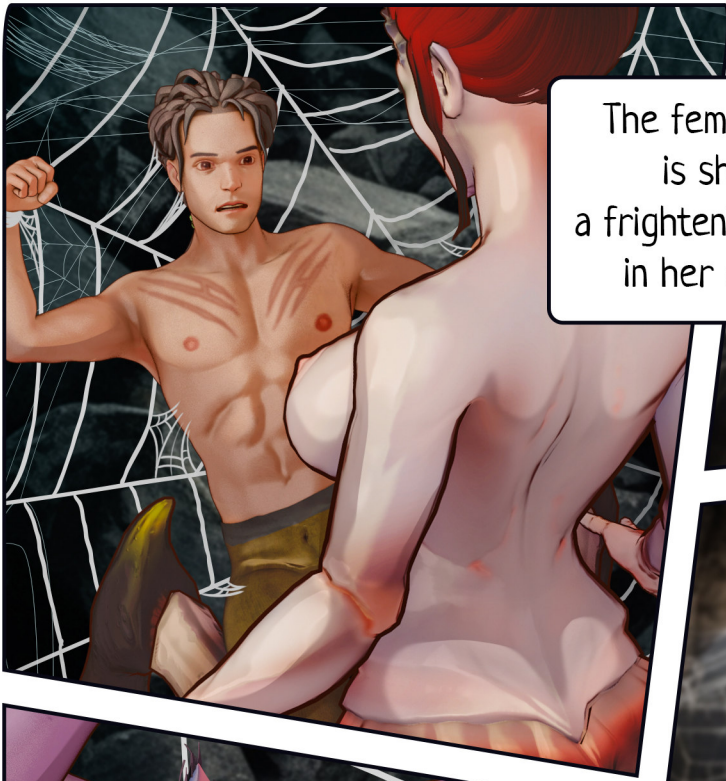

These strings are so sticky!
I can't get my hands free!

Uh, what..?
Oh... hello..?

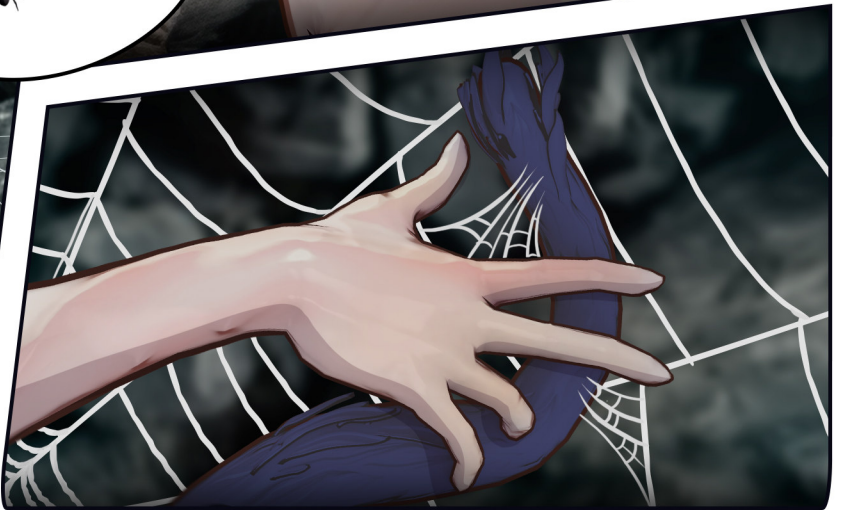

A unusual creature moves a little farther away, and Lee finally sees her whole. The sight of the massive spider body connected to the girl's upper half makes a sobering effect on Lee.

The female spider is showing a frightening interest in her captives.

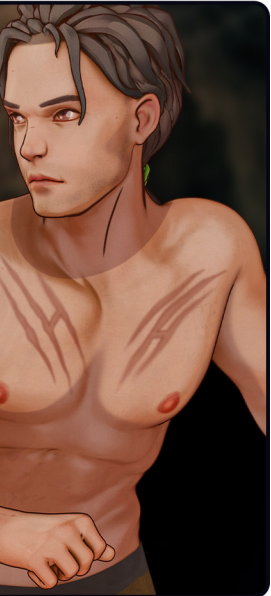

* Lee, it wants to eat us!

Lee regroups, preparing to defend.
The top of this creature is certainly attractive, but Lee won't let it eat him and Cat!

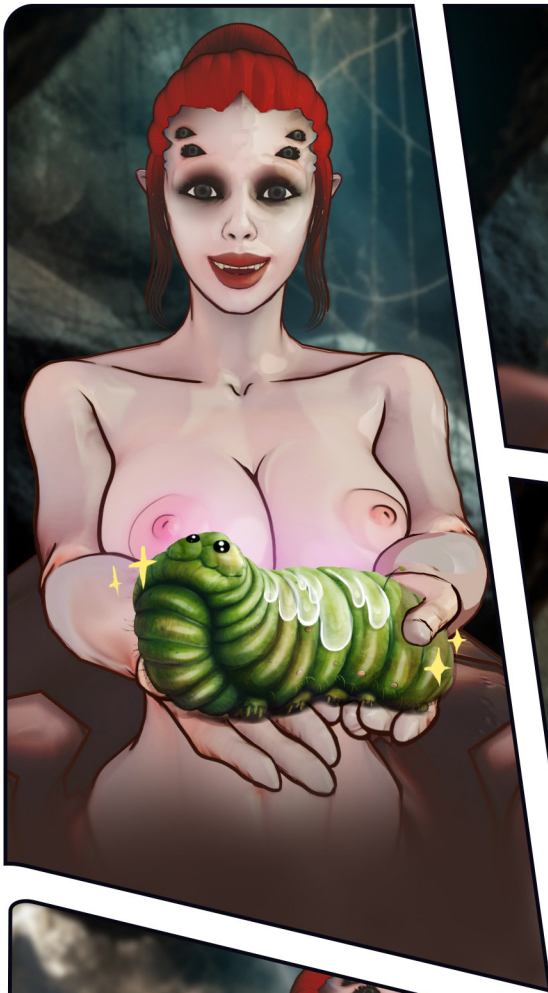

Cat, run to the raft! Bring me my spear!

The spider doesn't attack for some reason, and Lee decides to seize the moment.

The spider was clearly hungry, but not for meat...

Try to get away.

Start fondling in return.
